

I would like to express my concern about Federal Telephone Privacy Laws. I am extremely happy with the current Indiana Law. Since placing my name and number on the do not call list my telephone solicitations have dropped to practically zero. I would like to encourage you not to weaken this law in any way.